Informative Architecture

A. Look at the model of Tenochtitlan. What can you tell from it about the Aztecs?

B. The Plaza of the Three Cultures shows buildings (or the remains of buildings) from three different periods in Mexico City's history. Identify the three buildings. What periods in history do the buildings represent?

C. What is the central plaza used for? How long has it been used for these purposes?

D. What dominates the skyline of modern-day Mexico City? What is the city's population?
